I am of opinion that this system of registration 2.—The system is clearly contrary to the retinied that it has much, if any, effect towards predecessor's opinion justified its continuance.

3. I desire, therefore, that you will take steps as soon as possible for the proparation of an Ordinance abolishing this system. It will be necessary to repeal section 21 and sub-sections (a), (b), and (c), of section $3 (1) of Ordinance No. 11 of 1890, together with all references in other sections of that Ordinance to " registered." brothels and "nuregistered" brothels. There will perhaps be other consequential amendments make, with a view to committee ander the altered oiropmstances the fullest possible benefit from the other provisions of that Ordinance which have for their object the protection of women
